

Young Innovators to Watch
Parent/Guardian Consent Form (for applicants under 18)

I. Award Overview: “Young Innovators to Watch” is an initiative of Living in Digital Times. The Award provides recognition to individuals or small teams between the ages of 13 and 19 for developing innovative products that demonstrate exceptional creativity and innovation in a technical or scientific context. Award winners may receive in-kind prizes, media promotion and other benefits through the Award. An application includes the following completed materials: application form, recommendation form (optional), photo, video or website of project and this parent/guardian consent form (if the applicant is under 18). These application materials are required to be submitted by the application closing date of the event, as posted on the web site. By signing this consent form you attest that the applicant is under 18 years of age, you permit the applicant to submit personal information on the application materials, and if selected as a winner you permit the applicant to attend the awards ceremony.

II. For team entries, you must submit a copy of this consent form for every team member under the age of 18.
